CHORAL SOCIETY MAY HAVE SUNDAY CONCERTS

Cannot Get Hall for Use on Week Days.

Members of the Choral Society will vote upon the proposition to hold its future concerts on Sunday evenings at one of the local theaters. The board of managers has found it impossible to rent a suitable hall where concerts may be given, and it has been suggested that Sunday be chosen and the recitals held in a theater. Whether this proposal will meet with the approval of members of the society remains to be seen. Opinion was so obviously divided that a ballot was decided upon.

Resolutions bearing upon this plan will be sent to active and sustaining members. Each will be required to answer two questions: "Does the plan of Sunday concerts meet your approval under the circumstances?" and "If the Choral Society's concerts for the next season are given on Sundays will you continue your membership?"

The result of the vote will be announced some time next week.

Extraordinary Sale of Men's $3.50 and $4 Russet Shoes and Oxfords, $2.49

All this season's styles—and fully warranted in every respect.

The great and unexpected popularity of russet shoes this season had just about cleaned us out of the lines we bought early in the spring. We had been vainly trying for several weeks to secure more—when one of those unexpected windfalls of good luck came to us in the shape of a chance to buy at a great saving nearly 1,000 pairs of the finest hand-sewed welt Russet Vici Kid and Russia Calf Shoes and Oxfords—styles and qualities that we'd gladly paid a premium to secure. But instead we made a spot cash offer and got them at a big discount—and you ARE THE GAINER—for we propose to sell the entire 1,000 pairs at $2.49.

You can't duplicate them in Washington for less than $3.50 and $4. Sale starts at once. Come yourself and tell every man you know to come, too, for it's a bargain in a thousand.
